

House Resolution No. 2758

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who admirably have contributed an untold amount of time and energy to helping today's students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Cheryl L. Henry of Steele, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as the high school business education teacher for the South Pemiscot R-V School District, a leadership role which she is drawing to a close on July 1, 2005, in retirement; and

Whereas, during her more than thirty years with South Pemiscot High School, Cheryl Henry guided students through school newspaper, yearbook, Honor Society, Quiz Bowl, and Business Contest venues; and

Whereas, Cheryl Henry brought to her classroom and extra-curricular activities a wealth of expertise which she had garnered from earlier employment as an elementary librarian in Caruthersville, Missouri, schools and as a business teacher at Agana, Guam; and

Whereas, also distinguished as a Sunday School teacher, Cheryl Henry is a member of Samford Church of Christ; and

Whereas, Cheryl Henry is the beloved wife of Howard Henry, loving mother of Jennifer Creecy and Justin Henry, mother-in-law of Chris Creecy, and daughter of Christine Taylor:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive educational career of Cheryl Henry and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Cheryl L. Henry of Steele, Missouri.
